CONTENTS

No. 1 SEPTEMBER, 1942

W. Henry Hollinshead. A comparative study of the glomus coccygeum and the carotid body. Two plates (seven figures) 1

R. L. de C. H. Saunders. The os epipyramus or epitriquetrum. Two figures.. 17

William F. Pollock. Histochemical studies of the interstitial cells of the testis. One plate (four figures) 23

Arnold Lazarow. Particulate glycogen: A submicroscopic component of the guinea pig liver cell; its significance in glycogen storage and the regulation of blood sugar 31

M. K. McPhail and H. C. Read. The mouse adrenal. I. Development, degeneration and regeneration of the X-zone. Three plates (twelve figures) 51

M. K. McPhail and H. C. Read. The mouse adrenal. II. The action of certain hormonal substances on the adrenal gland of the mouse with particular reference to their action on the X-zone. Two plates (nine figures) 75

Albert I. Lansing and Gordon H. Scott. The effect of perfusion with sodium citrate on the content and distribution of the minerals in various cells of the cat as shown by electron microscopy and microincineration. Five figures 91

Book Review. L. J. Wells. Proceedings third annual conference on biology of the spermatozoa. Published by National Committee on Maternal Health, Inc. 97

No. 2 OCTOBER, 1942

David W. Bishop. Germ cell studies in the male fox (Vulpes fulva). Four plates (twenty-seven figures) 99

George B. Wislocki. The lungs of the Cetacea, with special reference to the harbor porpoise (Phocaena phocoena, Linnaeus). Two text figures and one plate (two figures) 117

E. De Robertis. Intracellular colloid in the initial stages of thyroid activation. Two plates (nine figures) 125

Roland H. Alden. The oviduct and egg transport in the albino rat. Four plates (ten figures) 137

Helen Wendler Deane. A study of the hepatic-cell mitochondria in the fatty liver produced by a high-sugar diet. Two plates (twelve figures) 171

E. Frances Stilwell. The photodynamic action of neutral red on embryonic chick cells grown in vitro. One text figure and three plates (twenty figures) 193

M-D. Fellows Nutting. A case of extrauterine pregnancy in the rabbit. One figure 215

No. 3 NOVEMBER, 1942

Ada R. Hall and Helen W. Kaan. Anatomical and physiological studies on the thyroid gland of the albino rat. Four figures 221

Wilfrid Taylor Dempster. The mechanics of paraffin sectioning by the microtome. Seventeen figures 241

Wilfrid Taylor Dempster. Distortions due to the sliding microtome. One figure 269

Margaret R. Murray and Arthur Purdy Stout. Characteristics of human Schwann cells in vitro. Four plates (ten figures) 275

Norman M. Nelson. The sclerotic plates of the White Leghorn chicken. Three figures 295

William H. Marshall and Robert K. Enders. The blastocyst of the marten (Martes). Two figures 307

No. 4 DECEMBER, 1942

Carroll A. Pfeiffer and Charles W. Hooker. Early and late effects of daily treatment with pregnant mare serum upon the ovary of mice of the A strain. Three plates (twenty figures) 311

Howard H. Hillemann. A method and apparatus for opening and closing eggs which will permit turning at regular intervals during subsequent incubation. Two figures 331

HOWARD H. HILEMANN. An embryological micromanipulator with an adjustable egg-holder attachment. Two figures 337

HOWARD H. HILLEMANN. The design and use of micro-electrodes for the production of lesions in the pituitary rudiment of chick embryos. Three figures 343

EDMUND MAYER. Reversibility in the orientation of the chick embryo and the question of situs inversus viscerum. Nine text figures and one plate (two figures) 359

BEN THOMAS PAINTER. Studies of the avian pituitary. I. The development of the duck pituitary with special reference to changes in the pars buccalis. Two plates (eleven figures) 387

E. G. BUTLER AND J. P. O'BRIEN. Effects of localized x-radiation on regeneration of the urodele limb. Four figures 407

J. WALTER LANDSBERG. The blood picture of mature normal dogs 415

L. B. AREY. Book Review. Visual mechanisms. Edited by Heinrich Klüver 423

Reviews of approved films in anatomy and biology 425

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF ZOOLOGISTS. Officers, program, list of titles, abstracts of papers and author index for postponed fortieth annual meeting 431
